Quarter Mediation (QMED) is an European adult education provider based in The Netherlands. QMED has branches in France, Italy, Malta, Portugal, Romania and Turkey.

QMED organizes Comenius & Grundtvig courses at European level, as well as courses at National level.

QMED has experience and expertise in The Lifelong Learning Programme 2007-2013, being partner in a large scale of projects, organizing events and promoting the image of different organizations and bodies.

Quarter Mediation is working with individuals (students, teachers, people on labour market, decision makers in the field of education, VET specialists), as well as with institutions (schools, universities, small, medium and big enterprises, associations, nongovernmental organizations, authorities etc.), both at national and international level.

Quarter Mediation's aims are: to promote lifelong learning; to create a link between the general education system and the labour market, as well as between VET and the labour market; to organize training courses for students, teachers, headmasters, inspectors, people on labour market, VET specialists; to work with schools, universities, institutions involved in the educational system for promoting trans-national partnerships throughout the European projects.

Quarters Mediation's areas of expertise are in the fields of: General Education and Vocational Education and Training.

In the project, QMED will deliver good practice and innovative, creative Training methods out of its practical experience as a VET provider. It will give the partners an insight in its trainings with employed and unemployed people for a better integration into the labor-market and contribute results/experiences to the practical guidance. Quarter Mediation will participate in all project meetings and activities will organize a project meeting in Assen, The Netherlands, on 12th and 13th of June 2012 and will create the first number of the project newsletter. QMED wrote the report on the kick-off meeting organized in Germany, in October 2011.
