Departure Day

¹Every year, on September 19th Napoli celebrates its Saint Patron (San Gennaro). For this reason it is day-off (like Sundays). It is really interesting to observe celebrations in and out of the Napoli Cathedral (il Duomo – Via Duomo – historical Centre). On this date San Gennaro's blood liquifies (http://www.portanapoli.com/Eng/Culture/blood_miracle.html).

Suggestions for additional programme:

If you stay longer in Naples don't lose the chance to visit the following sites:

1. The wonderful recent 6 km No traffic Zone on the Seashore (Via Caracciolo) with luxurious hotels, castles, royal palace, events and great views of the Napoli Bay.
2. The Vomero Hill with San Martino Monastery and Sant'Elmo Museums and wonderful landscapes;
3. The Archeological Museum of Naples, with testimonies from Romans, Pompei and Ercolano Excavations.
4. The Line 1 Metro Stations, with modern masterpieces by famous artists and architects.
5. The Museum and Park of Capodimonte, for long walks into the green and history.
6. Posillipo Peninsula and the Virgiliano Park, one of the magic places most appreciated by artists/writer from the XIX century's Grand Tour.
7. The Cimitero delle Fontanelle, an incredible and unusual cemetery in the heart of Naples;
8. Napoli Sotterranea (underground): ancient Greek, Romans and past ages ruins just... underneath.
9. Via Toledo, Via Chiaia and Via Scarlatti, the main (high-quality) shopping streets.

How to arrive at the meeting place by public transport:

- From the Airport:

1. Take Alibus bus (€ 3,00) at the airport exit and get off at Napoli Centrale Railway Station;
2. then you have 2 options:
 - a) take bus line C57 (€1,20) and get off at Via dei Tribunali stop (ask the driver); Then, <http://goo.gl/maps/lczmj>. It 5 minutes walking: you can ask for "Piazzetta Nilo", it very easy.
 - b) take bus R2 or 202 (€ 1,20), get off at "University" and then, through Via Mezzo Cannone you will reach Piazzetta Nilo: <http://goo.gl/maps/UCx8D>;

- From the "La Locanda dell'Arte" hotel:

It takes 10 minutes by walk very slowly. Here you find the link to the google map: <http://goo.gl/maps/eC2oV>
